ABOUT US

Our Organization

EECO is a statewide nonprofit organization that primarily provides professional development to educators throughout Ohio. We also provide a database of hundreds of Environmental Professionals that have STEM Careers and are willing to volunteer to help students connect with careers in Ohio.

Students!

- Do you care about the planet?
- Are you looking for environmental career connections?
- Do you want to know about the specialized training and skills needed for these careers?
- Do you want to see how your current coursework is connected to real world jobs?
- If yes? Check out our website: www.eeco-online.org
